Can I keep my life coverage if I leave my employer?

Yes, subject to the contract, you have the option of:

Converting your group life coverage to your own individual policy (policies).

If you leave your employer, portability is an option that allows you to continue your life insurance coverage. To be eligible, you must terminate your employment prior to Social Security normal retirement age. This option allows you to continue all or a portion of your life insurance coverage under a separate portability term policy. Portability is subject to a minimum of $5,000 and a maximum of $250,000 and does include coverage for your spouse and child(ren). To elect portability, you must apply and pay the premium within 31 days of the termination of your life insurance. Evidence of insurability will not be required.

Dependent spouse portability is subject to a maximum of $50,000.

Dependent child(ren) portability is subject to a maximum of $50,000.
